Spitamen Bank, Tajikistan deploys i-exceed's
Appzillon powered Internet banking solution

About Spitamen Bank

Spitamen Capital has been one of key players in the Tajikistan financial sector as one of the most active Microcredit Deposit Organizations for the past six years. Spitamen Capital recently obtained a banking license from National Bank of Tajikistan in January 2014 and changed its name to Spitamen Bank. Currently, it is one of the most innovative and technology driven banks in the country.

Spitamen bank realized the need for an effective solution for its internet and mobile banking needs while updating to a core banking system as it aims to serve corporate clients as well as the unbanked citizens of Tajikistan.

Spitamen Bank's Requirement

Spitamen Bank wanted to adopt the technology route to gain quick customer penetration in the country. The bank wanted to provide its customers the latest features of internet banking solution which could also be used from an internet enabled mobile.

The solution was expected to possess the following capabilities:

High levels of data integrity and security

Feasibility to extend features

Easy to use with simplified UI

Single solution for both mobile and web

The ability to seamlessly work with existing backend systems

Solution that can be quickly deployed

i-exceed's Solution
