Telekomsigma develops mobile banking app
using Appzillon

About Telkomsigma

Telkomsigma, a subsidiary of TELKOM Indonesia, is the leading integrated end-to-end ICT solutions company in Indonesia having achieved revenue more than 1 Trillion IDR. Telkomsigma helps its customers in the Finance, Banking, Distribution, Telecommunication, and other various industries to achieve their various business objectives.

The recognizing the need of banks in Indonesia, Telkomsigma wanted to develop a mobile banking solution to cater to needs of banks stepping in to the new age of digital banking.

Telkomsigma's Requirement

Telkomsigma wanted a next generation mobile application development platform through which they could develop mobile banking app with an in-house technical team and deploy it across various banks in the region.

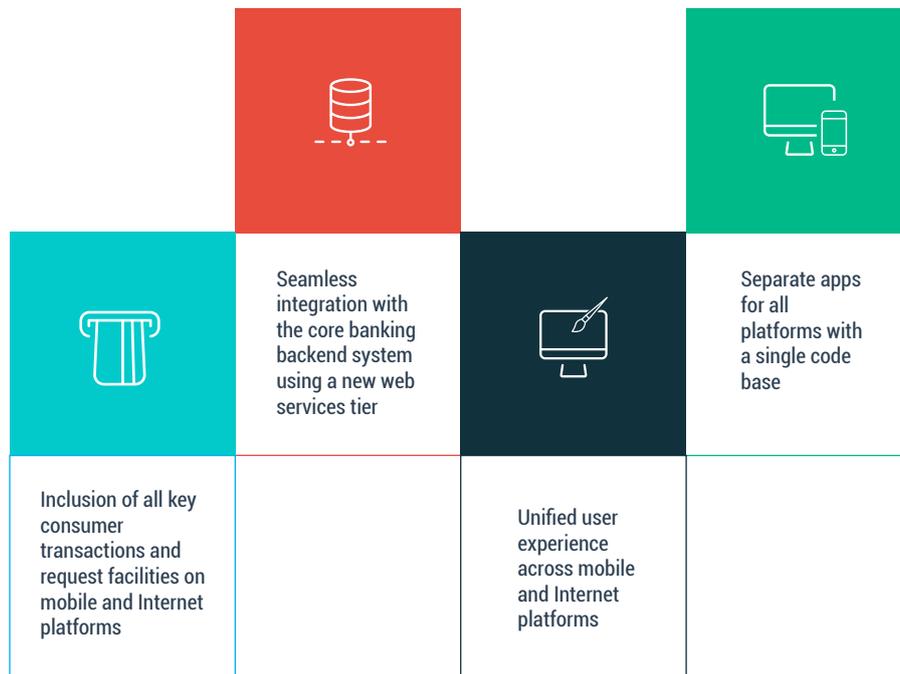

The platform was expected to possess:

 1 Multilingual support	 2 High levels of data integrity and security	 3 Future proof platform independence
 4 Ability to seamlessly integrate with multiple backend systems	 5 Easy learning curve

Telkomsigma's Application

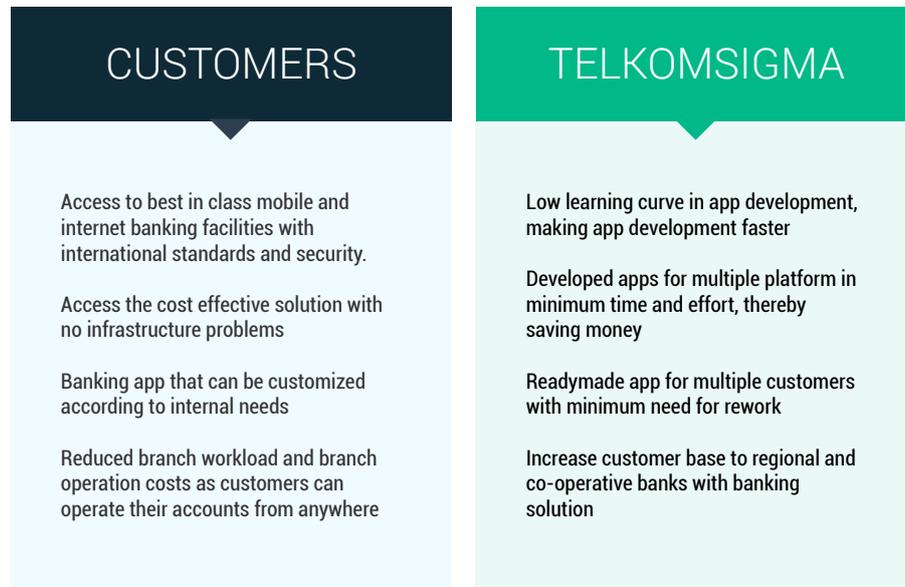

Telkomsigma decided to use Appzillon, i-exceed's flagship Mobile Application Development Platform (MADP), to build the mobile banking application. The app was built in just two months.
